STATEMENT BY SECRETARY UDALL ON THE DEATH OF ROBERT FROST

Robert Frost's words of wisdom will always remain one of the glories of the American language. Whether he wrote of country things or probed for the inner secrets of life, Robert Frost was universal in his humanity and understanding of the human predicament. Now that his personal "lover's quarrel with the world" is done, all who knew or heard him will carry with them always the warm glow of his words. He will stand tall among the immortals.
